lifesolutions courses and events are designed to help people give voice to the deepest cries of their hearts, and to get the help they need to restore broken hearts and broken lives.

lifesolutions short courses have been developed by experts in the fields of psychology, social work, teaching and theology. Each course comprises two key elements: a time of teaching about how humans are wired, what goes wrong and how to fix it; and a time for participants to meet and talk about their own lives confidentially in small groups of six, guided by trained facilitators.

lifesolutions @ door-of-hope.org is coordinated by Grace Fleming. Grace is on the staff at the Door of Hope Christian Church, and has an extensive background in teaching, counselling, group work and administration. Using Careforce Lifekeys, Grace has established the life solutions @ door-of-hope.org course framework and facilitator training at the Door of Hope.

Facilitator Training

A training program designed to offer key insights into why people struggle and how to bring hope and help in a supportive group setting

Facilitator Training

This training offers key insights into why people struggle and how to bring hope and help in a supportive group setting.

It covers core issues in the emotional, cognitive, behavioral and spiritual domains. The group skills include strategies for leadership, intervention and other aspects of group dynamics.

Effective small group ministry demands effective small group leaders – facilitators. The quality of facilitators is determined by the quality of the training they receive, therefore this potentially the most important of all the Lifekeys programs.
